

Women's Reproductive Health is a Public Health Issue...

(Public Health England)

1 in 4
in the workplace are affected by menopause

1 in 10
with endometriosis

1 in 3
develop fibroid symptoms

1 in 5
affected by heavy menstrual bleeding

4 in 5
experienced one reproductive health symptoms in the last 12 months

1 in 7
experience fertility problems

1 in 10
with Polycystic Ovary Syndrome (PCOS)

... and a workplace issue

Consultancy Solutions

Tailored Solutions to improve Women's Wellbeing at Work

Feminine Vitae offers consultancy and coaching solutions to support women's menstrual and reproductive wellbeing and improve career development prospects

- We help employers retain experienced staff, increase employee engagement and benefit from gender & cognitive diversity;
- We equip managers to support employees affected by reproductive health symptoms;
- We support women affected by reproductive health symptoms and conditions to achieve their full potential at work.

Our services

Organisation and Business

- Policies (e.g. menopause, reproductive health conditions)
- Surveys and Audits
- Reports

Managers and Human resources

- Workshops on reproductive health conditions
- Legal and Policy considerations
- Support action plan for staff

Employees

- Professional and personal development coaching
- Actionable solutions to manage conditions/ symptoms and workflow
- Tailored support plan

Empower women affected by reproductive health conditions to achieve their full potential at work

Contact us

hello@femininevitae.co.uk
www.femininevitae.co.uk